

JOB APPLICANT PERSONAL DATA PRIVACY POLICY

This is CrimsonLogic's policy for handling personal data received from persons who are seeking employment at CrimsonLogic.

In this policy:

- the terms "we", "us" and "our" refer to CrimsonLogic Pte Ltd and/or its related companies ("CrimsonLogic").
- the terms "you" and "your" refer to a job applicant who submits or wishes to submit an application for employment with us.
- the term "job application" shall refer to a job applicant's application for employment with us.

What personal data we collect

"Personal data" is data that can be used to identify a natural person. Examples of personal data include your name, address, contact details, education background, employment history, references and results of employment checks.

We collect personal data about you and where required, also about other persons, such as your family members, spouse and/or children. The purposes for collecting such personal data are set out below.

Your provision of personal data to us is voluntary. However, please recognize that if you choose not to provide us with the personal data we require, it may not be possible for us to contact you, process your application and/or consider you for employment.

If you provide the personal data of anyone other than yourself (including your family members), you warrant that you have informed him/her of the purposes for which we require his/her personal data and that he/she has consented to your disclosure of his/her personal data to us for those purposes.

By providing us with personal data, you agree to the terms of this policy and you consent for yourself and on behalf of such other persons to our collection, use and disclosure of personal data on these terms.

You must ensure that all personal data that you provide is true, accurate and complete and promptly inform us of any changes to the personal data.

Our purposes for collection, use and disclosure of personal data

We collect personal data from you, and use such personal data for the hiring process. This includes using the personal data to:

- assess, administer and process your job application
- contact you in respect of your job application
- identify and evaluate you for positions available within CrimsonLogic
- monitor and review our recruitment policies
- validate the references provided and to conduct employment checks
- conduct our security clearances

In order to achieve the purposes stated above, we may disclose the personal data collected from you to:

- different units or departments within CrimsonLogic
- our related companies
- our service providers and agents, such as third party recruiters
- regulatory authorities, statutory bodies or public agencies for the purposes of complying with their respective requirements, policies and directives

During the hiring process, we may also obtain information relating to you from third parties (such as character referees). In doing so, we necessarily disclose your personal data to such third parties.

We may also collect, use and disclose personal data for other purposes, if required or permitted by law.

In furtherance of the purposes as described above, we may transfer to other countries the personal data which you have provided to us. In such event, we will ensure that we comply with all relevant data protection legislations and/or regulations. This generally means that:

- the collection, use and/or disclosure of your personal data would be for the purpose(s) for which you have given consent.
- steps would be taken to ensure accuracy and completeness of your personal data when your personal data is used or disclosed to third parties.
- security arrangements would be made to protect your personal data.
- your personal data would be retained only if necessary for legal and business purposes.

Protection and Retention of personal data

We will take reasonable measures to safeguard your personal data.

We will retain personal data for a reasonable period to fulfil the abovementioned purposes and in accordance with our legal and business purposes, even if your job application is unsuccessful. We do not usually retain personal data of unsuccessful job applicants for more than one (1) year from the date of collection.

Access to and Correction of personal data

You may request for correction or access to the personal data we have collected about you. We may levy a charge for processing your access request. Please contact us to find out how to request for correction or access.

We may be prevented by law from complying with your request. We may also decline your request if the law permits us to do so or if we no longer have your personal data.

Feedback

If you have any questions or concerns regarding any aspect of this policy or the personal data you have provided, you can contact our Data Protection Officer at contactdpo@crimsonlogic.com.

Amendments and updates

We may amend this policy from time to time and will make available the updated policy on <https://www.crimsonlogic.com/career-portal>. Each time you contact, interact, transact or deal with us, you acknowledge and agree that our latest version of this policy shall apply to you.
